

4th International Congress on Gerontechnology

November 9 - 12, 2002, Miami Beach, USA

Integrated Symposium " Domotics and Networking

Programme

Note: to access the proceedings click at the relevant pdf file below or consult http://www.sentha.tu-berlin.de/aktuelles_e/index-aktuelles.html

- | | |
|--|--|
| SENTHA - a German research project in the field of domotics and networking
Wolfgang Friesdorf, Technical University of Berlin, Germany
email: wfr@awb.tu-berlin.de |  310
kB |
| Smart Home and the Aging User - Trends and Analyses of Consumer Behaviour
Sibylle Meyer; Eva Schulze, Berlin Institute for Social Research, Germany
email: bis@bis-berlin.com |  2.2
MB |
| Human-Computer Interaction in a Smart Home Environment
Klaus Fellbaum; Maik Hampicke, Technical University of Cottbus, Germany
email: hampicke@kt.tu-cottbus.de |  920
kB |
| Emergency call systems (systems based on human bio signals, user adaptation, location-aware systems)
Wolfram Roßdeutscher; Bert Schadow, Technical University of Berlin, Germany
email: rossdeut@www.medtech.tu-berlin.de |  4.6
MB |
| Future developments in technology (intelligent agents, smart clothes, scenarios)
Gregg Vanderheiden, University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA
email: gv@trace.wisc.edu |  3.8
MB |
| Future Societal Trends and Expectations of the Next-Generation Older Users of Domotics
Heidrun Mollenkopf; Hans- Werner Wahl, German Centre for Research on ageing, Germany
email: mollenkopf@dzfa.uni-heidelberg.de |  250
kB |